ROSELAND YOUTH MUSIC (RYM) is the education section of the Music Society. It aims to place musicians performing for the Society into local schools, enabling children to see and hear professional musicians and to learn about different musical instruments, styles and genres. Schools contribute to the cost of these visits but the majority of the finance is provided through the generosity of R.M.S. members. If you would like to support R. Y.M., include it with your subscription. It is a further help if you can gift aid your donation. THANK YOU.
